As your organization plans for open enrollment in a pandemic-impacted environment, there are likely significant changes ahead. From new plans designs, services and carriers to limited on-site options and different enrollment processes, the list of considerations you may need to address is extensive.

How will you confidently prepare and successfully communicate the value of your benefits program to your employees and their families?

Join Gallagher for this virtual town hall, where attendees will:

- Learn about innovative open enrollment solutions and trends
- Discover tools, resources, and technology options available
- Have related benefits and HR questions answered by our panel of experts
